

The Corrente Rosa Association invites you to a debate on What Egypt after Morsi?
on February 24, 2014 from 17.30 to 19.30 at the Foreign Press association, via dell'Umiltà 83/C, Rome

PROGRAMME

- 17.30 -17.40 Greetings from Maarten van Aalderen, President Foreign Press Association
- 17.40 - 18.20 Part 1 – The June 30, 2013 turning point after the expectations of January 25, 2011
Luigi Contu, ANSA Editor in Chief introduces the stories gathered in the book written by ANSA and ANSAMed journalist Luciana Borsatti Beyond Tahrir Living in Egypt with the Revolution

Khalid Chaouki, Member of Parliament, Democratic party, Member of Foreign Affairs Commission and of Mediterranean Union Parliamentary Assembly
Mahdi El Nemr, Egyptian journalist Foreign Press
- 18.20 -19.00 Part 2 – Issues and challenges of the current transition
Rasha A. Abdulla, Associate Professor and Chair Journalism & Mass Communication at The American University in Cairo
Deborah Bergamini, Member of Parliament, Forza Italia, Member of the Council of Europe Parliamentary Assembly
Nathalie Tocci, Deputy Director International Affairs Institute, Rome
- Moderator Serena Romano, President Corrente Rosa Member of the Anna Lindh Foundation, Italy.
- 19.00 -19.30 Q&A

The first part of the debate will be in Italian and the second in English no translations will be provided.

Please confirm your attendance by sending an Email to info@correnterosa.org

